e. “Services” means the presence of one or more Municipal Employees at a site, project, event, party, or affair of the Customer.

2. The Company will not be providing, and has no duty or obligation to provide, any Services to the Customer. The Company’s only role is the administrative tasks of facilitating the Customer’s request for the Services and collecting payment from the Customer for such Services on behalf of the Municipality.

3. The Customer further expressly understands and agrees that the Municipal Employees do not work for the Company, and the Company cannot compel any particular Municipal Employee to appear for a particular engagement. The Company is an independent contractor that provides administrative services to the Municipality. Accordingly, the Company makes no guaranty that the Services will be provided.

4. WAIVER OF CLAIMS: The Company Parties are not responsible for any actions, omissions, or breaches of contract of the Municipality or Municipal Employees; and the Customer hereby waives, releases the Company Parties from, and covenants not to sue the Company Parties in connection with, any future claim relating to any action, omission, or breach of contract of the Municipality. By way of example, this means that the Customer shall have no recourse against the Company Parties in the event that (a) any Municipal Employee fails to appear, or to timely appear, at the Customer’s location, (b) any Municipal Employee commits any crime, tort, or other improper action while performing the Services or while otherwise present at the Customer’s location, (c) any Municipal Employee fails to adequately perform Services for the Customer, (d) the Customer incurs any damages or liability as a result of the conduct of a Municipal Employee, or (e) the Municipality breaches its contract with the Customer.

bring a claim against the Company as a plaintiff or class member in any purported class or representative action.

6. LIMITATION OF LIABILITY: Without limiting anything contained in the other paragraphs of these terms and conditions, the Customer hereby waives the right to seek or recover indirect, consequential, or punitive damages against the Company Parties. In such event, the Customer shall be solely responsible for the higher fees charged by the nearby Municipality.

10. Along with each invoice payment to the Company, the Customer shall include an additional payment in an amount equal to the total unreimbursed charges incurred by the Company relating to any procurement or accounts-payable system utilized by the Customer.

11. The Customer shall make all payments for the Services directly to the Company, and shall be personally liable to the Company for such payments. Payments made directly to the Municipality or to any municipal employee shall not reduce the Customer's obligation to the Company. The Customer may not offset any payment it owes to the Company by the amount of any liability of the Municipality to the Customer. Without limiting anything contained in the immediately preceding sentence, the Customer shall be deemed to have waived any defenses or other objections to any invoices of the Company that the Customer does not set forth in writing to the Company within five (5) days of receipt of such invoice.

12. The Company will, to the extent requested by the Customer, use reasonable efforts to obtain a voucher or job slip from the Municipal Employee(s) performing Services for the Customer; provided, however, that the Company's failure to obtain such voucher or job slip shall not be a defense to the Customer's nonpayment of an invoice, nor shall it entitle the Customer to any credit or refund from the Company.

13. The Customer shall make all payments owed to the Company by no later than the date set forth on the invoice issued to the Customer by the Company, currently 30 days from invoice date.

14. By providing payment method information in the form of either credit card or bank account, the Customer has authorized the Company to charge the designated payment method for all invoices not paid by the due date.

18. By agreeing to these terms and conditions, the Customer acknowledges and agrees that these terms and conditions shall apply to all future orders for Services made by the Customer to the Company in connection with any Municipality, whether submitted electronically, by telephone, or otherwise. This includes but is not limited to the Waiver of Claims, Class Action Waiver, Limitation of Liability, and Indemnification provisions sets forth herein.
